

13 June 1863 ^{Typed} Eighteen Years ago what a Completion you was to bestow yourself on me - I should have been happy to have spent this anniversary of happy Union at Home when I could have told you ^{how} sincerely I have always loved you & that my lifetime my friends & my Love can know no measure

That sweet daughter of ours That amiable pledge your Love is very dear to my thoughts & I feel an additional gratification from observing the similarity of her character to your own, which is most affectionate Advice my dear dear Wife may you enjoy many Years of Health & Happiness & live to see if Louis is united to a man, who will be as grateful for the matrimonial Blessings he may enjoy, as he at this moment. Y^r faithful wife Has placed everything my pocket - every eye has missed it and to save what I can I can to move - before the House may be kept out of that further piece in David House Glass as I recommended in a former letter & let the Licenser & Group from the Sherburne Bureau of the House - what with us Left is another I must go to Bedford soon in good earnest - I will not fret about what can be accomplished, having too many reasons to feel myself the happiest man in
