Wellington 10th party Tuesday 27th

My dear friend —

Went out without my compasses & took in an outside paper as it often has been without any advantage — he left me at home Happily no unpleasant reflections disturbed my solitary meditations & this morning I got on the outside 12 miles from Bath to enjoy the scenery and at Bath took an outside place for this town to have a view of the country as is new to me — the road to Wells 20 miles is unpleasant on acct of the tremendous hills and it is necessary to drive down them so rapidly I make up for loss of time & this requires a more experienced driver to be placed by us — Half a mile from Wells there is the most beautiful subject for a landscape without water that can be conceived — how I wish for Louisa to sketch it — from Wells to Glastonbury the road is charming 7 miles — the town is pretty

Most tenderly
Yours
