

Bulstrode 21 Dec 1782

25

I send this little note in quest of you my Dear Miss Hamilton & hope it will procure intelligence of your health and kind remembrance of your Friends at Bulstrode whose affectionate wishes and esteem attend you in all places. I cannot boast of as good health as you I know wish may fall to our share, but we are both better, and when we go to Town hope to find you there; and can then say more than I can write uncertain as I am if y^e can read this

I find this little note to you my dear Miss Hamilton & it will prove an interesting one to you. I have been thinking of writing to you for some time but have been so busy that I cannot find time to do so. I have been so busy that I cannot find time to do so. I have been so busy that I cannot find time to do so.
