It is very mortifying to me that I cannot be an assistant to Mr Goldworthys charitable undertaking but the truth is I am engaged in favour of a poor clergyman which has at least for some time exhausted the little interest I can pretend to — hope to be so happy as to see you some part of this Evening, am much better & see a ^{small} few Friends ever yr affectly

My young people & school branch are charmd to Miss Hamilton at this time I believe in the Whispering Gallery
