Sunday night

56a

fearing there was some blunder in your message this evening my Dear Friend - This is to inform you that the Dutchess D of Portland is engaged on Tuesday I shall be happy to see you - and will continue if you have no better way - to go in usual equipage and any fear you will have - and if you can eat a broiled chicken with me - you will make me happy adieu

Yours ever

Sept 10, 1904

and today is under contract to you it will be agreed to on 16th Jan 1905.
