

W
 Windsor May 29th 1706

how much am I oblig'd to my Dear and kind Friends for their mutual Letters and best flustering Proposals of making me a Visit at Windsor any time before the 16. but what is my mortification that I cannot well obey self of it - I am oblig'd to go to Town for some days. The time not yet fix'd - and the remaining Part of June is already engag'd to my old and worthy Friends Lady Prote and Mrs Landford and Mrs Proceven in successing if my Health and spirit will allow of my enjoying so much comfort I have but one share room for a Friend. and indeed if I had more I am at Present in to low a State of spirit to to admit of more than that will contain. but is depend I trust will not be entirely lost - but that some such opportunity may come again for this unavoidable delay Mrs Dens who is with me at Present and with Miss Port

Mrs. Selamy May
17th 1846

Desires this best Compts. - She leaves me to morrow and looks forward with Pleasure to the 16 of June after which Day she hopes to have the Honour and Pleasure of seeing you and Mr Dickinson at Wellsbourn - and so after that Day it will be convenient to him to be as good as to make my Compts best wishes to Lady Wake for her kind attention to me - the remembrance of so worthy a Person is truly valuable - and I sincerely Wish her for the Jeff she will soon have of your Company - every wish for yours and Mr Dickinson's Health and Happiness Sincerely attend you my Dear Friend from your most affectionate and obliged

Mrs Selamy
