

NAM 11/10/1/17

From A. M. Clarke to Mr. Dickinson 12.

Jan^y 27, 1887

My Dear Brother -

My heart overflows with gladness that I am now able to congratulate you on the most happy event of my dear dear friend being safe, & on the birth of your Daughter - I sorely yearn & long & I cannot tell you how great my joy was, Oh how I have desired to hear this intelligence, I shud hear, but they were hours of joy - I desire to hear again & very constantly I desire you to take care of your Mary more unceasingly, but keep her very quiet & do not let her talk to you, do not give regard to her being in good spirits, too much excitation will hurt her do not let her see this letter for a fortnight - but as soon as she is ^{well} ~~well~~ stronger - tell her of love her most tenderly that I rejoice for her & myself - tell her this one of my Gode Blessings -

Adieu

with sincere friendship

Yours
A. M. St. Clark.

I hope I shall hear tomorrow

Piccadilly Jan^r 27th 1767 -

I have sent to Mr. Walkey, here a Note

I shall be congratulate you -
