My dear Mrs. Johnson

I have taken the opportunity of Mr. Greenville's return to Brighton of sending you a few lines, ^{to inform you of} two very great events, which I trust will give you pleasure as you & Mr. J. have ever interested yourselves ~~in our family~~ so kindly on our accounts, one is that my sister Katherine is to be married in a few months to Mr. Warner whom you have seen, it is entirely with the consent of my Aunt & Mr. & Mrs. Knowldley & at present no other of our friends know of it, the disparity of their ages is certainly very great, but he has acted so generous & well situated as our affairs are at present as you I believe are well assured that he cannot expect any fortune with her therefore his motives must be real affection. I hope they will be happy I really think she has very good prospects

best of being perfectly so, the distance will be from us is very great and that I believe is her only objection to it, he says she shall never be without one of us with her and if she wishes it he would both of us ^{to} live with them but that we should not ~~him~~ ^{now} think it would be pleasant to them — Catherine is just gone to spend a few days with Mr. Rindley and Mrs. Keen and she is then going to Tunbridge Hill to Mrs. Glover and from thence to Mrs. Jaggath at Putney. She would have written to you on this subject herself and had indeed had begun a letter but was so much hurried that she could not go on with it she will very shortly send you a long letter, and will I hope be very communicative. ~~That~~ ^{the} last Tuesday we she was invited to tea alone at my Aunt's for the express purpose of seeing my Aunt's Bel's who was seated in great form in the parlour to receive her she was not in the least agitated but talked of indifferent subjects and told she hoped very ^{much} to me — we ~~then~~ ^{now} spent that ^{the} at Bishop's, and next an evening at Mrs. Keen's room to spend again, we all were sitting off to take a drive in the reliable Mr. Haring & Mrs. Boushe his intended ~~lady~~ ^{lady} on horseback if we had not got out of Kensington Park before she was thrown, and carried into the House covered with blood and perfectly senseless, she did not recover in the ^{last} fortnight of an hour afterwards, she is now quite out of danger, and will I hope be well enough to be married very shortly she has cut her head, neck, hand and face but has no broken and limbs, and such a scene of confusion never was in everyone in fact the ^{great} thing to be careful how she ~~comes~~ ^{comes} away on horseback. I hope you will excuse this short half written letter, when I can catch the Bishop in good humour I will get a frank and write a very long one with our united kind love to yourself Mr. & Louisa

Believe me ever my dear Mr. Robinson Yours sincerely & affly

M. Harrison

Don't let Louisa give this writing as I do often I can write much better
