

My Dear Miss Hamilton

I beg you will present my humble Duty to her Majesty & inform her, that I have not been able to get any Intelligence about the Dutches of Ancaster; Lady Caroline Egerton had heard nothing but the Message from the House that she was as well as could be expected, from which at least one may conclude she has hitherto escaped the infection. Their Roy.^l Highnesses here are all perfectly well & send their Duty, they did me the honour of breakfasting with me this Morning in my garden, & I have now just taken my leave of them. I have rejoiced in this fine Day for their Majesties at Windsor, the Terrace must have been delightful. The gardens here have been as full as possible, & amongst the Company I heard of Lord Shelburne & his Future, they are to be married on Wednesday next. I hope your sweet little Royal Trio are well & by my Duty to them. Believe me ever my Dear Miss Ham.

Most faithfully Y^r

Cherish
