My Dear

Will you be so good as to deliver the enclosed ~~to~~ Lady Charlotte.
I expected some thanks from the Bishop but as he has not yet sent them I can not venture to write & must trouble you. I am happy to hear such good accounts of you & expect to see you as soon as Worcester, the not being dragged for two whole hours upon the Treadmill at Windsor

I contribute towards it, I am sore out by Wednesday but Wednesday evening wounds me a little, & I am ready to start again on Friday. When my dear Lord judge of my thankfulness by my silence, for the perpetual hours of my life gives me no time for writing —
