Shew House Tuesday

I rejoice my dear Miss Hammett to hear you gain strength, & that you are in hopes of soon being able to get on Horseback, which I I dare say will be of great use to you, lucky for me that it is not necessary for I never should have courage to ride in the Neighborhood of London. Miss Augusta is thank God quite well, & I think quite as strong, & more amiable than ever, I always thought I loved her, but I am sure I do now more than ever, & B. has ordered me to give her Love to you, & thank you for Mr. Messager, she wishes you could see her apartments which are full of Ross Minicott Violets & I am very sorry our Affairs are at so great a distance that we cannot meet, we are out twice in the lay in the coach a bit over both three hours, & with Mrs & afternoon besides, but not withstanding this or find time to do our business very well & very quietly, so have been three times at the Larras House, over so sent by your lodgings, which so did not know till afterwards, & so met Mrs Hamilton going to you.

When I am obliged to finish.

I am sincerely

Yours
M. G.

Mrs Church I am here
