

NAM/1/15/2/28

12 o'clock

25

from Miss Hamilton

My dear friend

Novr.

I have waited in anxious expectation all day - I had not note by y^e. post - I then flattered myself - by hearing from y^e. by some scut that return'd with their Majesties - after y^t - I hop'd to receive a few lines by some of y^e. ladies in waiting who were to come down tomorrow was y^e. day fix'd for y^e. going - You were ill very ill yesterday - I cannot bear y^e. uncertainty of suspense - My serv^t is to set out as early as it is light in y^e. morn^g.

Mr. - Told me in one of the many interesting conversations the late Mr. G. told me that

The King ^{George 4th 2^d} sent the D^{ch} of Devonshire to Mr. Pitt and desired him to name his own terms - ^{and} that such was the situation of the Nation that it looked up to a Man of small fortunes and private birth, and wth y^e. exception of having married Lord Temple's Sister, ^{of no family alliance, he had also but} confined to a small circle of friends and acquaintance

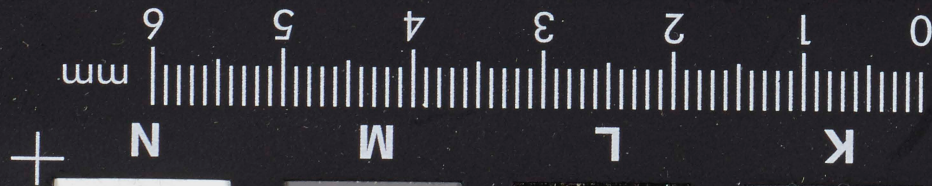

Nov 25

Dec 14th
gentleness. - if it is love - reasoning & not redicating must be your plan
- y^t. later will prevent future confidence
- But Alas! my Astrea tis hard to know & much harder to guide y^t human heart - Adieu Adieu my Dearest
Love Ever thy faithful

Monday I am always in waiting - it will be late before we meet - but we will meet that ev^g.
spent two hours much to my satisfaction
- ^{himself & daughter} they are - very amiable worthy people
- This Morn^g the Man call'd & I sent
y^t. copy of it. I enclose for y^t. perusal to you I rec^d what I now send. - I really in

The above appears to be from The Hunt's ...

Is not your I well pleased wth the success of y^r. Irish? ^{one meets} every person who any any interest in y^r. Country are in highest spirits —
I w^d. have y^r. treat I s^d. wth y^r. utmost.

Dec 14th
gentleness. - if it is love - reasoning
& not redicating must be your plan
- y^t. later will prevent future confidence
- But Alas! my Astrea tis hard to know & much harder to guide y^t human
heart - Adieu Adieu my Dearest
Love Ever thy faithful

Monday I am always in waiting - it
will be late before we meet - but we will meet that ev^g.
spent two hours much to my satisfaction
- ^{herself & daughter} they are - very amiable worthy people
- This Morn^g the Man call'd & I sent
y^t. copy of it. I enclose for y^t. perusal to you I rec^d what I now send. - I really in

The above appears to be from The Hunt's ...