

as I shall be certain of I had the Pleasure of hearing of you this morning from your amiable Friend Mr Glover. It was the first time of my having seen him and from his Character and honest venerable appearance I could not but conceive a respect and admiration which such a Character must ever command, with the additional circum-stance of his being your attached friend.

Mr Hamilton and I are desir'd their Com^{ts} I am Dear Sir A.

Yours affectionately
M^r Hamilton
