

12 June 1708

Thursday Morn.^g
St. James's.

I cannot my dear Mrs. Dickenson bring me her little Louise to Day? Any time from 2 & 4, or perhaps 6, I expect to be at Liberty.
And I hope Mr. D. will not so resent my failure of a late appointment as to refuse escorting you. Mr. Gisher has had the matter
- which I did not think in his nature - & told me the breakfast was very charming.

You will probably meet my father & Mrs. Ord - no one else, but yours, Dear Madam, &c.
