

Hampton. Tuesday 19th July. 95.

My dear Madam.

My Aunt has commission'd me to write you, of her having been favord yesterday evening, by another Royal Visit!

About two hours after your leaving Hampton, and just as my Aunt was preparing to set off for Iwer, a note was brought from Mrs. Bunbury, to inform her, that the Duke, and Dutcheß of York, would be with her by half past Seven. Every thing was arrang'd as well as the shortness of the notice would admit: Refreshments were placed in the Temple; and I had the honor of very humbly supplying your place, in dressing the flower jars &c. Their Royal Highnesses came earlier than

NAM 11/6/615

Dear Mr Garrison

their Appointment, and were attended by Lady Ann Fitzroy, and a Mr Lock.
The evening was most favorable, and they appeared highly delighted with their reception. Nor must I forget to mention The Duke of York expressed his concern at not recollecting you, the other evening.

I will not my dear Madam longer intrude on your time, then to present you with my Aunt's kind Remembrance;
And to beg your acceptance, of mine, and Mr Garrison's sincere wishes, for the health, and long continued happiness, of yourself, Mr Dickinson, and your sweet little Louisa who I hope will not forget the very flattering regard she professes for her, and

Yours, much obliged very humble servant,

Johna Garrison?
