

HAM 11/6/6/6

July 1797

My Dear friends.

I should fly towards Lighthou-house immediately were my wings at Leisure. They have been much employ'd since we parted, and must do more by and bye — after my Hay is got up, if the weather ~~would~~ permit; otherwise the Hay must go to the Hurries, and I to to fulfil my engagements towards the West. — You see that you must not flatter yourselves to get me under your benign roof this summer; and yet I will not positively swear not to get time in my power for a few days to embrace you all. I am not settled yet at Hampton

How can I guess when I shall. I long to see the great Hall at Leighton house which can contain all the Tackles for the Squire's Sports which he proposes to enjoy — may health be the reward for the fatigue!

I am sorry Lady W. destroyed our having met this summer at Hampton; but I hope the next, if we are alive and inclined, to enjoy many days together, between Leighton house and Hampton.

I must quit you now, as my time is not my own — so God bless you all.

Yours for ever

M. Farnish
