

Mrs. ~~Hamilton~~ presents her compliments to Miss Hamilton and is much oblig'd to her for informing the world about the ~~trouble~~ she has been so lucky as to get what she wanted, but is equally oblig'd to her, she wishes her much joy of this day and sorry she has it not in her power to show her respect and duty, and is afraid she will not have it in her power to visit of her before she sets out for east Bourn, she goes herself in about ten days to Brightwellston, and if she should happen to come then will be happy to see her Madam. West Monday 5th June 1780
