My dear Miss Hamilton

My Mother is prevented by company from telling you herself that she received the Queen's command this Morning for introducing you to her Majesty at the Queen's House tomorrow Evening - as you are to be there at Six o'clock, & my Mother is to accompany you, she wishes it may suit you to let her have the pleasure of seeing you here at dinner first, at 4 o'clock, but if that sh^d. not be convenient to you she will call on you in her Coach at ten minutes before Six. as to the day of your entering on your Office, it is not yet quite settled, but I imagine it will be early in next Week. I am d^r. Miss Hamilton

Y^r. sincere & faithful

My Mother desires to join with me in compl^{ts} to M^{rs}. Hamilton — as you come to the d^r. off^{ce}.
by her M^r. order, you will of course be as much obliged as you wd for a large Assembly.
