Dear Madam

Your obliging Letter I received yesterday.

I have now the high satisfaction of informing you, that every thing is going on well at the Queens Palace. The King's health has been gradually amending for three days without any check, & hopes begin to be entertained of a speedy recovery. The Queen & the Princesses are tolerably well.

Should any opportunity ^{offer} of visiting your part of Kingdom, it would give great pleasure to Mr. Fisher & myself to wait. upon you & Mr. Dickinson.

We have been very unfortunate in our family. Of eight children we have but three remaining: a son & two daughters.

I will take the first opportunity I have, of mentioning to Princeps Elizabeth the message you have honoured me with.

With our united good wishes to Mr. Dickinson & yourself

I remain

Dear Madam

Your most faithful friend & servt.
