

W. Fisher presents his Compliments to Miss Hamilton

& begs the favour of her to inform the Queen, that the two Drawings which her Majesty was graciously pleased to command some time since are finished. W. Fisher wishes to know in what manner he should convey them to her Majesty. Shall he send them to Miss Hamilton, & beg the favour of her to present them?

W. Roberts is so obliging as to take this, & will wait for Miss Hamilton's answer.
