Dear Sir,

Nov. 1789.

I have received a letter from my Agent in Scotland, acquainting me, that as the Gentleman from whom he expected to receive the Thousand Pounds, was not then in Edinburgh, nor had ever given him a positive answer tho' it was to have been paid on the 11th of this Inst. I was certainly very properly at liberty not to consider him any further in the matter. I shall therefore avail myself of your goodness to me, and will immediately execute a proper Bond for your security, which shall be ready to be delivered to any Person you may think proper to authorize me to give it on your behalf, it shall be dated as I formerly mention'd from the day your Bill was sent from Manchester. As for the Scotch part of the business, that will now require a new arrangement, which may be very safely defer'd till I have the pleasure of seeing you. In the mean ^{time} I beg you will be assur'd, that I shall consider your interest with every possible attention, and that I shall be ready, with the utmost pleasure, to return your money into your hands, whenever you may think proper to signify your inclination to receive it.

Notwithstanding the loss of the King's Theatre in the

The Haymarket, we are to have greater doings in Music than ever the ensuing winter & spring. marches certainly returns, we had a letter from him yesterday. Sacchierotti is already here with some new great Instrumental Performers. I beg to offer the Comp. to of my Family to you & Mr. Dickenson & remain with great regard
