

VAM/11/4/2/8

Dear Sir

I did myself the pleasure of writing to you on Friday the 25th of September acquainting you that I had received official notice of a vacancy of a Cornetcy in the 10th Dragoons, & that it was expected that I should immediately make a deposit of the purchase money according to the regulated price, without which the recommendation of my Son could not be given in to the Secretary at War for his Majesty's approbation. Having many months ago obtained General Pitt's consent to receive my Son into his Regiment, I find myself now in the most unpleasant situation in not being prepared to do what is necessary upon the occasion. This was the purport of my last letter to you expressing my acceptance of your most obliging offer to accommodate me with a Thousand Pounds till it could be got upon the security of an Heritable Bond upon my Estate in Scotland, which my Agent informs me he expects to receive on the 11th of November next. As there has been sufficient time for a return of a letter from Tazal had you been there. I am very uneasy lest it should have remain'd there to be given to you on your return from Task-gate, where I should have directed it had I imagin'd you could have remain'd there so long. You will easily account for my uneasiness when I inform you that I am in daily expect-tation of receiving a peremptory order to lodge the money.

Tho' your answer to my letter may probably be on its way, yet for fear of a disappointment I thought it advisable to make a second application, directing it to be forwarded in case of your absence from home. I remain with great regard Oxford. Decr. 24th.

October 2^d 1789.

Dear Sir

Yours faithful & affect. Servant
